

Dear resident,

Welcome to the July ebulletin from Islington Council.

What's new

Look what's new to My eAccount!

To make life easier for you by managing your council accounts online, My eAccount has now added over 130 new services in three new sections. In My Street you can report a blocked drain or dumped rubbish, as well as dog fouling and graffiti. In My Recycling and Refuse you can check your recycling collection date, report a missed collection and request a new recycling box. In the new My Benefit section you can view your Council Tax and any Housing Benefits.

Adult Community Learning

Are you over 19 and claiming income-related benefits? If so, you could qualify for free courses beginning this September in subjects such as English, maths, computing and job-finding skills, in one of our five centres across Islington. Many of our past learners have progressed onto college courses and found jobs.

Out and about

Heatwave is here!

There is a huge range of free and affordable activities on offer for children and young people this summer. Check online or look out for magazines during July at all Islington schools, libraries and leisure centres. Also check out our podcasts online, featuring the inspiring stories of young people and parents who have used local youth services.
